

9 day

Wildlife and Waterways

Highlights

- Predator sightings
- Chobe River boat cruise
- Okavango Delta water-based activities
- Walking safaris
- The majestic Victoria Falls

Day 1

OKAVANGO DELTA

Upon arrival at Maun Airport, guests will be met and transferred by light aircraft (scheduled service) to Kadizora Camp.

Kadizora camp is a private oasis situated in the northern region of the infamous Okavango Delta beneath a majestic stand of trees. The 9 luxury en suite tents provide stunning views of the Delta beyond, as well as giving the camp a small and intimate feel. Kadizora is also complete with a pool, lounge, bar and dining area and a curio shop, all to enjoy when you are relaxing at the camp between activities.

Overnight at Kadizora Camp – Dinner and activities.

Day 2

OKAVANGO DELTA

Guests can enjoy open vehicle safaris, walking safaris and boating in the traditional Mokoros (dug-out canoe).

The Okavango Delta is a bucket list destination for many safari enthusiasts, not least because it is a world heritage site and also known for providing the ultimate safari experience combining exclusivity and luxury lodging. The Okavango is produced by seasonal flooding, as a result of rainfall in Angola, but is a must-see destination all year round.

Dinner is a sociable affair and after guests can enjoy a drink around the camp fire listening to the bush nightlife.

Overnight at Kadizora Camp – Fully Inclusive.

Day 3

CHOBENATIONAL PARK

After breakfast, guests depart via scheduled transfer by light aircraft to Kasane, followed by a short road transfer to Elephant Valley Lodge.

Elephant Valley Lodge is situated in the Kasane Forest Reserve, which is adjacent to the Chobe National Park. Open guest areas, a secluded hide, refreshing swimming pool and 20 'meru styled' tents complete the lodge which lies beneath a forest of sturdy knob thorns. Guests can enjoy an afternoon game drive and then return to the lodge for dinner.

Overnight at Elephant Valley Lodge – Lunch, dinner and activities.

Day 4

CHOBENATIONAL PARK

Elephant Valley Lodge offers morning boat cruises, to visit the abundance of elephant that come down to the river to drink, as well as afternoon game drives to traverse the national park.

Chobe National Park is a true wildlife paradise and one of the best national parks in Southern Africa. It is home to the highest concentration of elephants in Africa, along with an abundance of other wildlife. The park is extremely lush for an African reserve, because of the many waterways.

Overnight at Elephant Valley Lodge – Fully Inclusive.

Day 5

VICTORIA FALLS

After an early morning activity guests will be transferred by scheduled road transfer across the border in to Zimbabwe. The transfer to Victoria Falls takes approximately 2 hours depending on border queues.

For the next 2 nights guests will be accommodated at Batonka Guest Lodge, set in lush gardens and within easy walking distance of the main attractions. Facilities include a swimming pool, activities desk and curio shop.

Overnight at Batonka Guest Lodge – Breakfast.

Day 6

VICTORIA FALLS

During the stay in Victoria Falls, guests will enjoy a guided tour of Victoria Falls and a tranquil sunset cruise on the Ra-Ikane boat on the Zambezi River.

Overnight at Batonka Guest Lodge – Breakfast.

Day 7

HWANGENATIONAL PARK

After breakfast, a scheduled road transfer will take guests on a journey of 2.5 hours to the border of Hwange National Park, a prolific wildlife area in Zimbabwe. Guests will be accommodated at Elephant's Eye Lodge. Elephant's Eye is located close to the border of Hwange National Park on a private concession, allowing for a unique experience in a wildlife haven.

Overnight at Elephant's Eye – Lunch, dinner and activities.

Day 8

HWANGENATIONAL PARK

As Elephant's Eye is located on a private concession; activities can be flexible and include exciting game drives or a day trip into the world famous Hwange National Park.

Hwange is the largest national park in Zimbabwe and hosts over 100 mammal and 400 bird species. Water remains the single most important management factor in Hwange's continued existence – absolutely vital to the survival of what is Zimbabwe's single largest concentration of elephant.

Overnight at Elephant's Eye – Fully Inclusive.

Day 9

DEPARTURE

After breakfast, guests are taken by scheduled road transfer to Victoria Falls Airport.
