

5 day

Cruising Nosy Be

Highlights

- Great boat, great skipper, great crew
- Wonderful landscapes of sea and beach
- Experience on board a catamaran

Day 1 NOSY KOMBA

Guests are welcomed by the skipper at the Nosy Be airport. They are then transferred to the Crater Marina and board the boat.

They set sail for Nosy Tanikely, where they stop for snorkeling and visit the small marine national park. Guests spend the night in front of Nosy Komba, where they can disembark and go for a stroll in the village.

Overnight on board the Trimaran Sesame – Lunch and dinner.

Day 2-4 ISLANDS AND NAVIGATION

The itinerary for the following days will depend on the weather and the skipper, but the planned route takes guests to the Bay of the Russians and Nosy Iranja, with its superb beach. They will moor there for a few hours. The catamaran will anchor at Baramamay Bay, where the mouth of the river is enchanting and allows guests to visit the local village. They can also take the time to swim, snorkel and fish, and depending on the season, dolphins, whales or whale sharks can be seen.

Along the way back to Nosy Be, guests will stop at Nosy Sakatia, and get the opportunity to swim with the turtles. The boat then will set course for Nosy Be, arriving at the end of the day where guests disembark.

Overnight on board the Trimaran Sesame – Lunch and dinner.

Live this!

A catamaran cruise is a different way to discover the island of Nosy Be and its surroundings, in the northwest of Madagascar. A getaway that could not leave guests indifferent since it allows guests to access the most inaccessible corners of this part of the island. Relaxation and change of scenery guaranteed!
